Descripción

Remarks :
This 1938 International Dragon (Hull Number 50) designed by Johan Anker is a stunner. She had a major refurb over 20 years years ago, before the present owner bought her. She comes with a number of sails and an excellent yard trailer. The present owner has been an excellent custodian and viewing is highly recommended.

Accommodation :
"Elfin" (Swedish for Dragon)
Hull Number 50
Built by Knudson/Johanson in Sweden
In present ownership for about 20 years
Pitch pine on oak hull
Major refit over 20 years ago, including the following:
First cut Burmese teak on marine plywood deck (replaced)
Coachroof and coamings were also replaced (mahogany and teak)
Keel bolts replaced where required
Rudder stock
Treated iron keel
A good suit of sails (no spinnaker or pole)
Older set of sails (main and & jib)
Well maintained yard trailer.
"Procter" Alloy mast and boom
2 x sheet winches
Hull faired and antifouled
Topsides faired and varnished to a very high standard a few years ago and looks great.
Large anchor with 10m of chain
Mooring lines and fenders
This Dragon is looking for a new "Custodian" to take care of her.
Viewing highly recommended.
Wintered ashore in a shed (with heating, when required) every year.
Winter storage cover.
